CELEBRITY CRUISES - CELEBRITY CONSTELLATION

Ports Visited: Tampa, George Town in the Cayman Islands, Belize City, Costa Maya, Mexico, Tampa

Celebrity Constellation offers you some of the classiest and most unforgettable experiences at sea as you explore the Caribbean Islands, Europe, and the Atlantic. Solstice Class improvements have made Constellation even more luxurious – make sure to try Qsine, the innovative specialty dining venue serving up a diverse menu of modern cuisine. An evening spent at our Rooftop Terrace enjoying a movie alongside themed snacks and drinks under the stars with our Taste of Film experience is also a must.

Celebrity Constellation is a haven for foodies. From the timeless elegance and classic combinations found in the main dining room to the authentic ice cream at the Café al Bacio and Gelateria, there's something to tantalize your tastebuds at every time of day.

When the stars come out over the ocean, Constellation comes to life. Why not head to Cellar Masters for a craft beer or liquor, or perhaps dance the night away at the Reflections Lounge?

And if you're looking for the ultimate in accommodation, Celebrity Constellation now has the Edge. Celebrity Constellation now features one Infinite Balcony – touch a button and your entire living space becomes the balcony, letting you walk right out to the water's edge.

The 2024 refurbishment of the Celebrity Constellation involved a complete revitalization of the ship's interior and exterior spaces. The cruise line invested millions of dollars to modernize and enhance the guest experience, ensuring the ship remains a top destination for travelers.

The refurbishment included upgrading the staterooms with new furniture, bedding, and modern amenities to provide a comfortable and luxurious stay for guests. Public spaces, such as the restaurants, bars, and lounges, were also redesigned and renovated to create a fresh and inviting atmosphere.

The ship's entertainment venues and wellness facilities received a makeover, with state-of-the-art equipment and technology. The outdoor decks and pool areas were enhanced to offer a more enjoyable and relaxing experience for passengers.

Additionally, the dining options were expanded and improved, featuring new culinary experiences and menus created by renowned chefs. The onboard shopping and retail spaces were also redesigned to provide a more upscale and modern shopping experience for guests.

Overall, the spring 2024 refurbishment of the Celebrity Constellation aimed to elevate the ship to new heights of luxury and comfort, ensuring that guests can enjoy a truly unforgettable vacation experience.

TAMPA (EMBARK)

Tampa is renowned for terrific boating, fishing and swimming. But there's so much more, with the fascinating old-world culture of Ybor City, and of course, Busch Gardens -- 300 acres of rides, animal exhibits and live entertainments.

Relax and enjoy your vacation onboard your ship. You can do as much or as little as you want. As the ship departs the port of Tampa in the early evening, passengers gather on the decks to take in the picturesque views of the city skyline and the shimmering waters of the Tampa Bay. The gentle sea breeze and the sound of the waves create a peaceful and relaxing atmosphere as the ship makes its way out under the iconic Sunshine Skyway Bridge.

As the ship leaves the bay and begins to sail towards the open sea, the sun begins to set, painting the sky with hues of pink and orange. Passengers gather on the decks to watch the sunset and take in the breathtaking views of the horizon.

As the ship begins its journey towards Georgetown, the excitement builds as passengers look forward to the adventures and experiences that await them at their destination. Some take advantage of the ship's amenities, enjoying a delicious meal at one of the onboard restaurants, while others relax by the pool or indulge in a spa treatment.

As the evening progresses, the stars come out and the ship glides through the dark waters, providing a sense of calm and tranquility. Passengers can also take part in the ship's onboard activities and entertainment, such as live music, performances, or themed parties.

BELIZE CITY

Belize City is both the geographic and commercial center of the Country of Belize. All major highways lead into and out of this colonial city and provide access to the Rainforests, Mayan archaeological sites, and the other natural inland and offshore attractions. Belize City is an excellent starting point for excursions to the Barrier Islands, for scuba diving and for a wide variety of tours. A visit to Belize City offers a variety of experiences for travelers looking to explore the rich cultural and natural beauty of the region. The port itself is situated in the heart of the city, making it easy for passengers to disembark and begin their adventure.

Upon arriving, visitors can choose to explore the city's historic sites, such as the Belize Museum or the Government House, where they can learn about the country's colonial past and cultural heritage. The city is also home to a bustling market area, where guests can shop for local crafts and souvenirs, as well as sample traditional Belizean cuisine at the many street food stalls and restaurants.

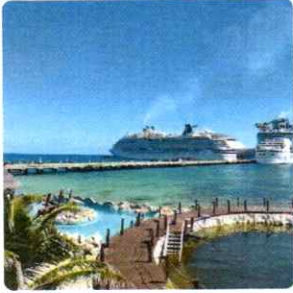

For nature lovers, a day visit to Belize City offers the opportunity to take a short excursion to nearby natural attractions such as the Belize Barrier Reef, the second-largest coral reef system in the world, or the ancient Mayan ruins at Altun Ha or Xunantunich. These experiences provide a chance to witness the stunning biodiversity and historical significance of the region.

Additionally, the city is known for its vibrant Caribbean atmosphere, with lively music and dancing, and visitors can immerse themselves in the local culture by attending a traditional dance performance or enjoying a reggae concert.

Overall, a cruise port day visit to Belize City offers a perfect combination of history, culture, and natural beauty, providing an enriching and memorable experience for all who visit.

COSTA MAYA

Beginning where the Mayan Riviera ends, the Costa Maya stretches along the coastline up to Belize. The Costa Maya is the last remaining section of coastal properties yet to be exploited and there are acres of coastal land with absolutely no development. The odd fishing village spots the landscape but not much beyond that. Flying along the coastline you encounter numerous cenotes, and you can still see the outlines and impressions of villages that were there centuries ago.

A cruise day stop in Costa Maya, Mexico is a vibrant and exciting experience. The port of Costa Maya offers a wide range of activities and attractions for cruise passengers to enjoy.

During the day, passengers can take part in a variety of shore excursions, such as diving and snorkeling in the crystal-clear waters of the Caribbean, exploring ancient Mayan ruins, or visiting the local shops and markets to pick up handmade crafts and souvenirs.

The port itself features a sprawling complex with shops, restaurants, and bars, as well as a large pool with swim-up bars and lounge chairs, making it an ideal place to relax and soak up the sun. Visitors can also enjoy live music and cultural performances throughout the day, adding to the lively and festive atmosphere.

For those looking for adventure, there are also opportunities for zip-lining, ATV tours, and beach activities. And for those seeking relaxation, the beautiful white sandy beaches are perfect for sunbathing and swimming.

Overall, a day stop in Costa Maya is filled with opportunities for exploration, relaxation, and fun, making it a highlight of any cruise itinerary.

AT SEA

After spending a full day exploring the beautiful port of Costa Maya in Mexico, the cruise ship starts to set sail in the evening, leaving behind the stunning coast and the warm atmosphere of the popular tourist destination. As the ship departs the port, passengers gather on the deck to wave goodbye to the colorful buildings and vibrant street vendors that line the shore.

As the sun sets over the horizon, the ship slowly makes its way out to sea, leaving behind the lights and sounds of the coastal town. The gentle rocking of the ship creates a sense of calm and relaxation as the passengers settle in for the night.

The next day is a day at sea as the ship makes its way back toward Tampa. With no set itinerary, passengers have the freedom to enjoy all the onboard amenities and activities. Some may choose to soak up the sun on the deck, cooling off with a swim in the pool or sipping on a refreshing cocktail. Others might opt for a leisurely morning at the spa, indulging in a massage or facial.

For those seeking more adventure, there are plenty of options for entertainment and recreation, from live shows and music performances to fitness classes and sports tournaments. The ship's restaurants offer a variety of dining choices, from casual buffets to elegant fine dining, ensuring that everyone can find something to suit their tastes.

As the day progresses, the ship gradually makes its way back toward Tampa, giving passengers plenty of time to relax and enjoy the tranquil rhythm of the ocean. With the sun setting in the distance, the evening brings a sense of nostalgia for the fun and excitement of the trip, while also offering a chance to unwind and reflect on the memorable experiences of the journey.

TAMPA (DISEMBARK)

Tampa is renowned for terrific boating, fishing and swimming. But there's so much more, with the fascinating old-world culture of Ybor City, and of course, Busch Gardens -- 300 acres of rides, animal exhibits and live entertainments.

As the early morning sun begins to rise, the cruise ship slowly glides into the Port of Tampa, creating a sense of excitement and anticipation among the passengers. The calm waters and gentle breeze add to the serene atmosphere as the ship approaches the docking area.

Passengers make their way to the onboard restaurants for an early morning breakfast, enjoying a delicious meal with a view of the port and surrounding sea. The aroma of freshly brewed coffee and sizzling bacon fills the air, creating a warm and welcoming ambiance.

After satisfying their hunger, passengers gather their belongings and make their way to the disembarking area. With a feeling of fulfillment from their time at sea, they eagerly step off the ship onto the port, ready to begin the next part of their journey.

Heading home, passengers pause for a moment to take in the last views of the ship and the port, reminiscing about the amazing memories made during their cruise. With a sense of nostalgia and contentment, they make their way to their transportation, eagerly looking forward to their next seaside adventure.

Thank You
